HINOTSUME SISTER'S DUO

Yumiko HINOTSUME (Pianist)

Chie HINOTSUME (Violinist)

Duo HINOTSUME is a sister duo, Yumiko is a pianist and Chie is a violinist. They established the “HINOTSUME Sister’s Duo” in 2000. They've both learned solo music and chamber music at Toho Gakuen University and music school in France , receiving many International awards. While in France.

Elder sister Yumiko has won the first prize at the European Music Competition, the second prize at Maryse Cheilan International Competition, and lots of prizes in many other contests so far. She now teaches at Elizabeth University of Music.

Younger sister Chie has also won the third prize at Graznof International competition , and chosen as a Excellent Youth Musician, receiving high praise.

They are both successful at their solo activities as well. They show up in variety of concerts now, where their ensemble music is getting popular year by year with their performance in perfect tune.

Since they came back to Hiroshima in 2004, they've been more focused on the activities in their hometown. They are proactively holding concerts at schools and hospitals, to make classical music closer to the local people.

They are also up in the radio programs to send the tune of the classical music to wider audience.

Since August 2009, they have been assigned to the Ambassador of Miyajima, renowned for being a World Cultural Heritage site.
